

WINE BOMBS

Our Coravin system is loaded and the time has come to deploy the Magnums. Large format bottles don't just look good. It is a known fact that wine from larger format wine bottles age more slowly and develop more complexity and nuances. This is due to the smaller amount of air that resides between the cork and the wine.

27 years ago, Alain Thiénot decided to build a new Champagne House. The challenge of penetrating a milieu where the greatest names began their existence as far back as the 18th century is testament to the character of this determined entrepreneur, and combines his fundamental beliefs of terroir, technical mastery and the ability to share his knowledge with others. This incredible journey has resulted in a brand of international renown that combines luxury and innovation.

The House of Krug illustrates the amazing adventure of a visionary, Joseph Krug, a determined man with an uncompromising philosophy, who understood that the essence of Champagne is pleasure itself.

He wanted to offer his clients the ultimate pleasure experience in Champagne every year, regardless of the annual changes in climate

Krug is the only House to offer five Prestige Cuvees that are all different, while all being of equal, undisputed quality and distinction.

Each Cuvee conveys a particular interpretation of excellence, offering an inimitable experience the moment it is tasted, overwhelming the senses with exceptional pleasure.

Rimauresq takes its name from the Real Mauresque, the river that flows through the vineyards. The domaine sits at the foot of the Massif des Maures mountain range, 20 minutes from Toulon. With a unique microclimate, the estate benefits from both the cooling mistral winds and the shade of the mountains above. This shade gives a longer ripening period in the crucial weeks prior to harvest. Nine noble grape varieties are found at Rimauresq, including Cinsault, Mourvedre, and Tibouren for the rosés.

Thomas Bachelder is a force of nature.

He comes across as very bright and energized, and he's currently making wines under his name in three countries: Canada, the USA (Oregon) and France (Burgundy).

He hails from Montreal, Canada, and has previous experience of working in all three regions.

Until 2010 Bachelder was founding winemaker at Le Clos Jordanne in Niagara, a position he took after experience working and studying wine in Burgundy, before working as winemaker at Lemelson in Oregon. His ambitious three-terroir winemaking project began with the 2009 vintage, and his main focus is on Chardonnay.

Made from Chenin Blanc, these are unconventional wines, and Craig Hawkins, the winemaker likes to experiment quite a bit. Typically, long macerations on skin are involved, and Craig is a believer in the importance of the lees for building the wine. El Bandito is made from grapes grown on the Lammershoek farm, while Cortez comes from a farm called The Observatory, which some readers will be familiar with because of Tom Lubbe's wines from this property.

Collection:

Pierre Seillan first began working with Cabernet Franc and Merlot more than four decades ago at his family's estate in Armagnac, and then later moved on to Château de Targé in the Saumur-Champigny AOC of the Loire Valley. Though Pierre enjoyed the Loire, Bordeaux beckoned, and he spent two decades as technical director and winemaker for seven Bordeaux châteaux in Lalande de Pomerol, Saint-Émilion, St. Estèphe, Haut-Médoc, Premières Côtes de Bordeaux and Bordeaux Supérieur.

Pierre met Jess Jackson in the mid-1990s and soon accepted his invitation to come to Sonoma County to make world-class wine. Inspired by the region's exceptional terroir, Pierre crafts Vérité's wines as pure Sonoma expressions of traditional Bordeaux varieties.

Collection:

Located just 30 minutes drive south east of Adelaide and parallel to the coast, these rolling hillside vineyards produce some of Australia's finest Shiraz and Grenache based red wines. Some of the areas historic old wineries were established in the late 1800s and many remain today. With a strong regional identity on the international stage, the wines have a distinctive style and subtly achieved from a combination of very warm summers, mild winters and cooling sea breezes. Many of Australia's most famous and expensive wines have their vineyard origins within this region.

Collection:

I am delighted to introduce SGC (Le Secret des Grands Chefs) – the fruit of eight years of dedication and secrecy. I knew that there was terroir in existence in Bordeaux, which had the potential to yield wine of top quality – terroir, which had remained unidentified at the time of the 1855 classification.

A three and a half year search resulted in the terroir, which I had hoped finding. I had finally identified the parcels which I was convinced, given the right technical means, expertise and nurturing, were capable of producing a unique wine.

RENATO RATTI

In 1965 Renato Ratti bought his first vineyard for the production of Barolo: a small plot in the historical zone of Marcanasco, right below the Abbey of L'Annunziata at La Morra. In the ancient (14th Century) Abbey, he created his first single vineyard (cru) Marcanasco Barolo. Between the middle of the 70's and the end of the 80's, Renato Ratti became an important point of reference for Langhe and Italian wines in general. He was elected president of the Barolo Consortium and subsequently General Director of the Asti Consortium. He directly participated in the drafting of the rules and regulations governing the appellations of Alba wines and was particularly active in those regarding the coveted "DOCG" (guaranteed) label. Today, his son Pietro is here to guarantee the continuation of that mission of vinification and refinement.

BORDEAUX

Collection :

The most famous Bordeaux wine property in Sauternes has long and interesting history starting in the middle ages when d'Yquem was owned by the King of England. In 1953, Jacques Sauvage was awarded feudal tenure over Yquem. Shortly after taking over the property, the Sauvage family built the present Chateau in Sauternes that we know today.

When Chateau D' Yquem is first bottled, it shows a dark yellow or gold hue. With aging, the color changes and begins getting darker. 40 year old Yquems could resemble caramel, while bottles twice that age, could have the color of dark coffee. Something else to consider, when Yquem is young, not more than 25 years after the vintage, the flavors will better resemble honey, drenched tropical fruit. As the wine ages further, often those yellow tropical fruit flavors fade and tasters experience flavors of caramel, burnt toast, spice and crème brûlée.
